Holiday-Inspired Invitational Exhibit on Display at Kentlands Mansion

Gaithersburg, MD – (November 10, 2020) Gaithersburg's Arts on the Green presents an invitational exhibit featuring winter and holiday-themed artwork on display at Kentlands Mansion from November 13, 2020 through January 10, 2021. Located at 320 Kent Square Road, the Mansion Gallery offers the opportunity to view art in the beautiful, timeless setting of historic Kentlands Mansion. In-person viewing is by appointment only. Please call 301-258-6425 prior to your visit and be prepared to share the number of guests in your party. All guests must wear masks and practice social distancing.

Artwork images and artist information will also be featured virtually on social media: Arts on the Green Facebook, Twitter and Instagram, and Kentlands Mansion Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.

Arts on the Green, comprised of Kentlands Mansion and the Arts Barn, has transformed the Mansion into a winter wonderland fit for the North Pole, including beautiful artwork from talented local artists scattered amidst the Mansion's seasonal decorations. Invited artists are Matthew Baker, Donna Baron, Howard Cohen, Phil Fabrizio, Craig Higgins, Hiral Joshi, Angela Lacy, Carol Moore, Lynne Oakes, Callie Otness, Natalya Parris, Leigh Partington, Margaret Polcawich, Yolanda Prinsloo, Michele Rubin, Ruth Sentelle, Sanjukta Sil Upadhyay, Pritha Srinivasan, Jeanne Sullivan, and Mary Weiss-Waldhorn. They are known for the caliber of their work and were asked to bring favorite pieces that have a winter-theme or reflect the many holidays of the season.

The Holiday-Inspired Invitational Exhibit complements a variety of holiday activities taking place at Arts on the Green, including the Holiday Art Market, Santa's Holiday Tour, Family Mini Photo Sessions, and Storytime at the Arts Barn featuring a reading of 'Twas the Night Before Christmas. There are other holiday activities taking place at Casey Community Center, the Community Museum, and even the Gaithersburg Aquatic Center, plus the Winter Lights Festival is back for its 25th year.
